

The image is a title card for the animated series "Rick and Morty". It features a glowing orange slice in the center, which is the primary light source, casting a warm orange glow. The slice is positioned diagonally. In the background, there is a dark, starry space on the left and a stylized, dark blue and black landscape with jagged, mountain-like shapes on the right. The title "Rick and Morty" is written in a white, hand-drawn, slightly irregular font across the middle of the orange slice. The overall aesthetic is that of a hand-drawn animation.
